

Journey - Lyrics and Chords

no Capo, 4/4, with tiny prelude

Am F C
This is a journey of my soul
G Am
collecting the pieces to make me whole
F C it whispers of places still unseen
G Am
waiting and calling desperately for me

F C
So I set off to find them and hope it's alright
G Am
ignore any reason that comes to my mind
F C at the end of my life I wanna say G Am (hold one bar) abundance is that what I've found on my way

F C
So keep on reaching out for the Blue
G Am
When my heart is in raptures, yes, that will do
F C
Keep on reaching out for the Blue
G Am
When my heart is in raptures, yes I'll give it to you (instr. play chords twice in a row)

I go back and forth every single day feel doubt and fear, sometimes I need to pray but stubbornly and unshakeably I keep my focus as I understand about our purpose, about being here

So I go for it and raise my voice dedicate all that I do to you, having no choice still believe in love, miracles and more and in something that guides me to a new open door
and in something that guides me to a new open door

Play and sing the chorus as above 2x and finally add the last two lines of the chorus:

.....chorus as above.....
F C
Keep on reaching out for the Blue
G Am
When my heart is in raptures, yes I'll give it to you
